The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe "Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 48 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no deb or will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

The above is a fair specimen of the kind of ballot to be cast at the approaching election by the Conservatives.

CONSERVATIVE PROSPECTS.

We are not disposed to create expectation, which will not be realized. The defeat of the mongrel Constitution and the mongrel ticket will require great effort, on the part of the Conservatives, until the day of election. If we had full time to discuss the questions involved, and for a thorough canvass, we believe it would not be difficult to defeat both the Radical Constitution and ticket by 40,000 votes. Not that every man with a white face in North Carolina would vote the white man's ticket—for there are, unfortunately, some five or ten thousand men, with white faces, in the State, who are really more degraded and more bent upon office, whatever be the results to the State or to their race, than the blacks themselves,—but for the reason that there are many blacks, who, if left to their own judgment and feelings, will not oppose the views of the intelligent and virtuous people of the State, and who will either vote for the Conservative ticket or stay away from the polls.

There is, however, ample time, if the Conservatives thoughout the State will work, to defeat the Constitution and the ticket handsomely. Our advices from every part of the State are highly encouraging. Never, since 1844, have the people of the State been so fully aroused. Everywhere our speakers and canvassers are addressing large crowds, and the signs of success are most encouraging. Let every Conservative come to the rescue of the old Constitution—of the good old North State in her better days,—against the new and infamous order of things, proposed to be forced upon us by Yankees and native scallawags!

OLD POINS.—There was a most shameless effort to buy votes for the Constitution (so called) in the late most shameless (so-called) Convention. It was scarcely even disguised. It embraced corporations and extended to individuals. Appropriations were made of millions; and individual ordinances were passed, by the dozen, which would have never been thought of for any other purpose. Innumerable threats were also made of worse things to come, if this Constitution is rejected. Appeals to our fears are every day made. They come at us with the coin in our hand, and a cudgel in the other—and we are told to take our choice. There was once an old reprobate, one of Shakspeare's creations, who tried to buy up recruits in the same rascally way. "If you will go," quoth Poins, "I will stuff your purses full of crowns; if you will not, tarry at home—and be hanged." Let us be brave and do right, though the heavens fall. They can give us no cudgelling worse than that we should catch by this infamous Constitution.

Shall MARRIAGE BETWEEN NEGROES and WHITES—amalgamation,—be allowed? That is one of the issues.

THOUGHTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

(No. 15.)

SIXTEEN REASONS FOR VOTING AGAINST THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTION.

1. Because it equalizes negroes and whites fully and in all particulars, and prevents the Legislature from ever making any distinction on account of color, either in political privileges, marriage, social relations, or on any subject whatever. It not only removes all barriers, but, in many particulars, forces them into such intimacy, that amalgamation is inevitable. See Article I.

2. It districts the State for the Legislature, for Congress and for Judges, without any reference to convenience or fitness, but solely in order to give the negroes CONTROL over the whole destiny of the State. See Articles II and IV.

3. It requires the census to be taken every ten years. This is unnecessary, since the general government does the same thing.—The expense will be very great. The object is to give fat offices to favorites, and, by an odious test oath, to reject as many as possible of their political opponents. See Art. II, Sec. 7.

4. It, in no way, provides for the representation of property in the Legislature; the voters and members for both branches being precisely the same, and no property qualification being required in either. The negroes are to rule, with the whole power of taxation, IN THEIR HANDS.—Art. II.

5. It increases the number of State officers, at an increased annual expense of at least $50,000. This is absolutely unnecessary. The whole object is to make more places for favorites, and ruin property holders by increased taxation. Art. IV.

6. It makes the Judges elective by the people, for a term of years, thereby making the Judiciary purely political, destroying the ability and purity of the Courts, and selling justice for the promotion of party. Art. IV.

7. It totally changes our county governments, forming them upon the model of Massachusetts and other thickly settled portions of New England; greatly increasing the expense; subjecting property to unlimited taxation; and introducing customs not suited to our people. Art. IV.

8. It will make our taxes about eight times higher than they have ever been.—Not is this increased taxation for the benefit of the people, but solely for partisan office-holders. See all the Articles, for it is emphatically a TAXING CONSTITUTION.

9. It requires every man, before voting, to swear that he will not only support the Constitution of the United States, but every law that shall be made by Congress. The object of this is to swear us into a political party. Art. VI.

10. It requires us to maintain a Free School for four months each year, in every School District. We must pay for this by taxation. White men will have the tax to pay chiefly, and, in a large portion of the State, negroes will GOVERN THE SCHOOLS. See Art. IX.

11. These schools will be open to all colors. There may be a school for each color, where the number of children is sufficient; but it will be as the negroes please in all cases. Where there are very few negroes, the schools will be mixed in all places. Art. IX.

12. It requires every man to send each child to these schools at least sixteen months, provided he does not or cannot send them to some subscription school. The object of this is to force mixed schools upon the people. Especially they intend to force POOR WHITES INTO EQUALITY WITH NEGROES. Art. IX.

13. It opens the University to all colors, and reduces the institution to an outrageous political machine. It gives the whole government, resources and offices of our noble University to the control of the negro element. Art. IX.

14. It makes all conditions and colors eligible to all offices in the State, without any condition. Wherever the negroes have a majority, they can fill any office with even the most depraved and worthless negro in the country. Art. VI.

15. It requires that negroes and white men shall muster together, and, of course, where negroes have a majority, they can elect all the officers from their own number. Art. XII.

16. It makes amendment or change almost an impossibility. If we adopt it, we must hold on to it, whether we are pleased or not. Art. XIII.

These are some of the reasons why no man in North Carolina ought to vote for the Constitution. There have been much parade and loud ranting about liberty and justice, and yet this proposed Constitution is more tyrannical, more cruelly oppressive, and more fiendishly unjust, than was ever offered to any people upon the face of the earth. Very many of us wanted them to make a Constitution that we could approve; we desired to be restored to the Union; we wanted all difficulties adjusted and peace once more to reign; though we may have had political differences, we had no personal hates, and we so much desired a restoration of our national relations, that we were ready to adopt anything reasonable, no difference by whom it might be made. But we cannot ratify the proposed Constitution. It is worse than we believed possible. We did not think that vindictiveness could go so far. We can neither be so cowardly, so false to our children, and so wicked in the sight of God, as to vote for such an abominable concern. It is impossible that the white men of North Carolina can really approve a Constitution that makes the negro their equal IN ALL THINGS. Let us, then, like true men, vote en masse against it. Let us do what we believe to be right, and risk the consequences. Let it never be said that the Yankees, the negroes, and a few so-called native whites, scared all the manhood out of us, and forced us to adopt what we loathed. We are by no means obliged to submit to such infamy. If we are guilty of treason, let the conqueror prove it and punish us; if we are not guilty, then let us stand up for our rights.

This proposed Constitution is monstrous in any sense you take it. Suppose it just and proper to punish secessionists and active war men, are there not thousands in North Carolina, who are as true Union men as ever lived?—a large number of old men, who opposed the war all the time—hard working men who have always been true to the Union—widows, who have suffered more than tongue can tell—orphans, who have been deprived of everything except a little property; yet, upon all these, this negro-equality, office-making, heavy taxing Constitution falls with equal ruin! The true man, who has a little farm and supports his wife and children by his own hard labor, will literally be ruined, if this Constitution is adopted. He must pay a tremendous tax, send his children to mixed schools, muster with negroes, have negroes for judges, magistrates, railroad conductors, road overseers, &c., &c. IS THIS RIGHT? Has he done anything to deserve such punishment? Yet all can see this is precisely what is proposed, and that no distinction is made, in any way, on account of what a man has done or suffered.

You may belong to the party that made this Constitution; you may have thought this party best, and that by it we could most readily be restored to the Union; but you must see you have been betrayed, that your confidence has been abused, that they have deliberately planned the ruin of the white man, for the benefit of the negroes and office holders.

The Constitution is out and out a Yankee concern, made for their benefit, AND YOUR RUIN. They tax us enormously to pay the public debt due to Northern bond holders. They give every Yankee some kind of an office and push our men aside, and then they levy an enormous tax to pay these officers and to educate the negroes. Let us never submit to this. Alabama and Arkansas have rejected their proposed Constitutions, and now they will have better conditions. All that the Radicals tell you about war and confiscation, if we reject this Constitution, is FALSE, and they know it.—We know you are opposed to negro equality and high taxes. Then come out boldly and put down this ruinous Constitution. It is your right to reject it, if you do not like it; Congress grants you the right to vote freely, and if you vote for it, the whole world must suppose you APPROVE IT.

Let every man go to the election and vote as a white man should. Let us defeat this monster, and then make such a Constitution as will be fair and just to all classes and conditions!

For the Sentinel.

HON. R. P. DICK ET ALS.

This gentleman "is a Republican, but not a radical Republican." Mr. D. will know how the writer happens to be so well informed, when he remembers the story of "The Lost Man," in the rear of the Speaker's chair, of what was then the "House of Commons." The disavowal was not necessary. The writer knew that this gentleman was not, and could not be, classed in that category, as we both understood it.—But how beautiful is the prayer which we learned at our mother's knee, "Lord, lead us not into temptation."

The Radicals knew that he was not of them. But they could not afford to lose the influence of his name. They therefore determined in conclave to make a high bid. He must seem, at least, to be with them.—So must Settle, so must Rodman,—both of whom, as well as himself, were like Mahomet's coffin, dangling somewhere between Heaven and earth. They must be brought down and chained to terra firma. So the number of Judges of the Supreme Court must be increased from three to five. One of the best of Judges, and purest of men, must be sacrificed; and thus the three links, wanted to complete the chain, were fashioned and forged. Would these gentlemen swallow the tempting bait? And if so, would that make them Radicals? We shall see. Lead us not into temptation. We are all "poor creeturs."

We fear that poor Rodman is already lost "beyond condamption." That negro carouse at the Capitol is the last of William B. Rodman, we fear. It was entirely too "social" for a moderate Republican. It was horribly "omnious." He is a "lost man." He has swallowed the nigger head-foremost. Requiescat in pace. But "we could have better spared a better man."

As to the gallant Captain, we could have strong hopes, if he acted only on his own hook in urging his eminent (!) qualifications for a Supreme Judgeship, that by a sonorous elocution, a goodly imposing person, and a skilful dodging of the real issues, he might, on the nigger question, come out all right at last, and retain the Conservative sentiments which he has so often and so well expressed. But since he has become the especial champion of the great Goliah of negrodom, and thrown down the gauntlet a l'outrance to all comers who dare to smile at the gigantic gulpings of his illustrious Chief, we fear we shall have to give him up, also, as a "lost man." He will soon learn, that at negro-swallowing, he is playing minnow to the whale. He follows the X. P. G., trotting along with ridiculously unequal steps. He was to the "manner born," and has been for years educating himself down to the task. But there is no escape for the unhappy Confederate Captain. His diaphragm is doomed. Let it open at once, and practice expansion on the largest scale. He is obliged to swallow 70,000 Coffees, either head or tail-firstwards, or in whatever other way that interesting specimen of aboriginal humanity may choose to present his highly flavored person for deglutition. The precious morsel is pretty well soaped; let it be well swallowed; and may the powers of the Supreme Court (expectant) aid in the perilous digestion!

For Robert P. Dick, we have a lingering kindly feeling of old, and hope his digestion may be spared, as we know he desires it to be. He has little relish for this "feast of fat things." Let him, as far as he may be permitted to, paddle his own canoe, make handsome educational orations, sometimes quote old Coke upon Littleton, recite a few stanzas from the standard poets, pour out some sparkling rhapsodies of his own—to please the ladies,—and then make a graceful bow and retire from the distasteful solicitation. He will thus, when the contest is closed, feel much better en poitrine, than those omnivorous friends of his, who come out of it with 70,000 "bar-barie pearls" in their paunches, unmelted, and with no "supreme" gastric juice provided to melt them.

This trio of interesting youths—babes in the wood, as it were,—wandering about with a lofty ambition to encounter Judicial labors, which have heretofore demanded the brave and sinewy arms of giants, are commended to the courtesies and kindly sympathies of our good natured people. Let them not be rebuked for an ambition greater than their power. Let it be remembered that they are all young men, and that this is not an "atrocious crime."

X.

WHICH IS BETTER, the old Constitution of our fathers, under which we have lived and prospered, or the new Constitution, which obliterates all the ancient and honored landmarks, and provides for a TAXATION, which will crush the people to powder, and which is designed to have the effect of transferring the property of our people into the hands of NORTHERN SPECULATORS!

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE COMPELLED to go to the same schools with NEGROES? That is one of the issues.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

HENDERSON, N. C., March 30, 1868.

Editors Sentinel:—I have been wanting to send you something from this place, for some days, but numerous things have occurred to prevent—among them, a degree of monotony that was almost overwhelming. But our town was amused, more than anything else, at a scene which was enacted in the streets, on Saturday. The man, who has become notorious, in this section, for note-forging, and a special affection, on his part, for any and every thing that is dark,—I mean John W. Ragland,—assembled about a dozen of his illustrious followers, in front of a negro doggery, which, I regret to say, disgraces our main street, and attempted to "orate" upon the impending crisis, &c., all of which he evidently understands. He was followed by a "pet," about the color of a badly baked ginger cake, imported from down-east, to teach the young colored idea how to shoot,—by name Crawford,—who is also one of the nominees of the black and white scalawags for the Commons. Their principal theme was giving the colored man his rights. They were replied to by a negro, who answered that he was in favor of the white man's having some rights, as well as himself. Ragland and Crawford are far below par in this section.

By announcement, the Conservative candidates for the General Assembly will address the citizens, at the respective precincts, during next month. At this place, the citizens propose giving a large barbecue, on the 17th., and inviting several of the distinguished gentlemen of the State to be present. Col. Wm. A. Jenkins, Gov. Vance, and many others, will be expected. It must be pleasant to every patriot, to witness with what a degree of enthusiasm, the white people of the State are uniting, for the purpose of defeating the cursed thing yclept a Constitution. The news of the defeat of the mongrels of Arkansas has infused a new spirit into the masses hereabouts, and they are determined to "go and do likewise." So long as it is left to the honest masses to decide, never will the fair name of Old North Carolina be sullied by the foul, and, we would add, damnable, efforts of a few, who would rather "rule in hell than serve in heaven." Let the white people of our State have a voice in the matter, and we fear not the result!

The election day draws nigh, and, of course, the war breath grows faster. And notwithstanding the great preponderance of the blacks over the whites, yet we are not altogether despondent. There are several offices to be filled by the people, for which, until a day or two since, persons had not been brought out. Among them is the District Solicitorship. Having waited a sufficient time for an announcement, by some of the legal fraternity, and none appearing, the friends of our fellow-townsman, Wm. W. Jones, Esq., urged his nomination, and it was made in the last issue of the Index.—The announcement has met with general approval by our people. Mr. Jones is a young lawyer of flattering promise, and an unusual degree of legal information, for one who has been but so few years at the bar.

As I will visit several adjoining localities during the campaign, I will endeavor to keep you notified as to the movements and complexion of things generally.

McKNIGHT.

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION IN HARNETT COUNTY.

Pursuant to previous notice, the Conservative party met in the Court House, in Lillington, on Saturday, March 28, 1868.

On motion, Col. A. S. McNeill was called to the Chair and Dr. W. M. McNeill requested to act as Secretary.

A roll of the Districts was called and the following delegates were present:

Buckhorn District—Dr. Jno. McCormick.
Upper Little River—Maj. A. Cameron.
Stewart's Creek—C. Parker, Jr.
Averasboro'—N. S. Stewart.
Grove—Col. Eldridge Stewart.
Neill's Creek—Jas. A. Johnson.
Hector's Creek—J. G. Brown.
Buckhorn—Jesse Morgan.
Johnsonville—Dr. J. McCormick, as proxy.

On motion, the Chairman appointed J. T. Reardon, Dr. Jno. McCormick, A. B. Horton, Gen. A. D. McLean and J. P. Hodges, as Committee-men, to confer with the Sampson and Cumberland county delegations, as to the nomination of Senators.

Resolved, That this Convention recommend the Hon. Thomas C. Fuller as one of the candidates for Senator in this Senatorial District.

On motion, a Committee of two were appointed from the delegates present from each District to consider the nomination of a candidate for the House of Commons and other officers.

After a short absence the Committee returned and suggested the names of Neill S. Stewart, for the House of Commons; J. R. Grady, for Sheriff; Gen. A. D. McLean, for District Solicitor; B. F. Shaw, for Clerk of the Superior Court.

These gentlemen were unanimously accepted as the nominees of the Conservative party.

The meeting was addressed by Neill S. Stewart, Gen. A. D. McLean and Dr. Jno. McCormick, in forcible and patriotic speeches, which were received with much applause.

Resolved, That the Conservative party of this county hold a mass meeting at the Court House in Lillington, on Saturday, the 18th April next.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Fayetteville News, Wilmington Journal, Raleigh Sentinel and Carolinian.

The meeting then adjourned.

A. S. McNEILL, President.
W. M. McNEILL, Secretary.

Editor of the Richmond Enquirer and Examiner:

DEAR SIR:—In reading proceedings in the Senate of impeachment (not court) I was struck with the following sentence of horrid blasphemy from Gen. Butler. Mr. Johnson asked for forty days to prepare.—Mr. Butler said:

"Forty days!—why, sir, it took God forty days to destroy the whole earth."

If there is any sense in this other than the most terrible blasphemy, I cannot see it, and I shuddered on reading it.

Yours,
A LADY.

A SONG FOR THE WHITE TRASH.—The Bedford, Va., Chronicle says we have just seen a new song, of two verses, which we hasten to lay before our readers, suggesting that it will be enlarged by additional verses, as the beauties of the new system becomes more fully developed.

In the meantime our tax payers can practice upon those two verses, and by the time they get so they can sing them "with the spirit and understanding," they will probably be furnished "a few more of the same sort!"

Old Uncle Ned, fro down dat hoe!
And Dinah, drop dat kitchen dough!
We now are free, wid nothin to do
But to dance all night and all day, too.

De poor white trash have noffin to say,
But to work! work! and de taxes pay,
While de bressed darkies dance dar fill,
Let the white trash feet de fiddler's bill.

DOWN WITH THE MONGREL CONSTITUTION! That is the slogan.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

THE X. P. G. IN MOORE—HE MEETS COLD COMFORT—GLORIOUS CONSERVATIVE RALLY—THE LEAGUES BREAKING UP.

JONESBORO, Mar. 30, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—The X. P. G. came, saw and didn't conquer on the 27th. As was announced by hand bill, we expected "several other eminent Republican speakers." But the cortege had been reduced by desertion, or, were, perhaps, out burning elsewhere, till they had to call out poor old A. R., of our county, to make time at all.

On the arrival of the cars, a polite note was placed in Holden's hands, asking that Hon. T. C. Fuller be allowed to reply, offering to submit to any terms as to time, &c., that he might decide on. After caucusing for an hour, a verbal answer, refusing, was returned, to the infinite disgust of the Radicals, who had been bragging that Holden was not afraid even to meet Gov. Vance, and that he would do it.

No accommodation had been prepared for the speakers, though Conservative gentlemen here had offered assistance. So, at the back end of a warehouse, in the edge of a swamp, evidently "laid out," as we say of poor and lean stock at our country churches, the X. P. G. was announced and three cheers called for, which were answered by less than a dozen voices, and a groan that almost shook the ground, and followed by three lusty and deafening cheers for the Conservative party—the negroes looking on, not knowing what to make of it at all.—All of which had the effect of softening such names as "traitor," "rebel," "secessionist" and "copperhead" into "our Conservative friends," in the speech which followed.

So Mr. Holden discoursed over so prosily, for two hours, about the "Con-stat tution," colored "surgents" and colored "ridgements," remarking that the U. S. service allowed negroes no rank above that of "surgent," but that North Carolina would do better. He was in favor of negro officers in the militia from 'Surgent" to Colonel.

While Mr. H. was speaking, an impromptu platform was tastefully arranged in the public square, and, after he was done, the Hon. T. C. Fuller, and others, proceeded to make the fur fly to a large and enthusiastic crowd of white men.

Holden lost a hundred votes here by refusing to hear Mr. Fuller, while Mr. Fuller made another hundred on the ground, to say nothing of the influence which it will spread in this and adjoining counties. The lukewarm are aroused, the Leagues are emptied. Numbers of negroes, contrary to all precedent, stayed at home to work.

The League near this place, a large one and composed of better men than are commonly found in such concerns, met recently and the President made a little talk, stating that he should then and there withdraw.—He was followed by another and another, till, in half an hour, all but two had left it forever, and one of them will vote against the new Constitution.

CANDIDUS.

SPEAKING IN BRUNSWICK.—A large number of the citizens of Brunswick assembled at Town Creek yesterday, and were addressed by Col. Cowan, Maj. Emett, and Captain Allen. Maj. Emett, our candidate for the Senate, bore himself most gallantly in this maiden effort, and will do valuable service in the campaign. Capt. Allen, as usual, acquitted himself handsomely. Col. Cowan's effort on the occasion is said to have surpassed even himself. This able and eloquent gentleman is rendering most efficient aid in behalf of Conservatism in this section of the State. Engrossed in most absorbing public and private business, he yet finds time to raise his voice in behalf of justice and law. We would be glad if it was in his power to canvass a large portion of the State, for we are satisfied it would be attended with much benefit.—Wilmington Journal.

"If President Johnson's plans adopted for our reorganization should fail, there is no hope for us, but to remain for years under martial law, and finally to enter the Union WITH THE BLACK MAN OUR EQUAL, POLITICALLY AND SOCIALLY. The contest is a plain and unmistakable one, WHETHER THE WHITE RACE or the BLACK RACE SHALL RULE IN NORTH CAROLINA. It is, therefore, the UNQUESTIONABLE DUTY of all citizens of the State to give PRESIDENT JOHNSON a cordial support."—W. W. Holden, Sept. 27th., 1865.

The SUCCESS of the white men of North Carolina, on the 21st. of April, is a CERTAINTY, if they will all VOTE, as we believe they will.

DIED:

In Louisburg, N. C., March 27th, H. L. BLALOCK, only son of Mrs. E. H. Blalock, of Franklinton, aged 15 years.

The subject of this notice was a boy of unusual intellectual promise, obliging and kind in disposition, and would, in all probability, if he had lived, have been the pride and joy of a now bereaved mother and sister. May the sympathy of friends cheer the hearts of the bereaved ones in their affliction, and that Power, that tempers the wind to the shorn lamb, give them strength to bear the cross with a resignation founded on a faith that "all things work together for good to those that love God."—for He, in His wisdom, "doeth all things well,"—is the sincere prayer of the writer! Gov. Graham will also be present at the Mass Meeting at Statesville, on the 7th; at High Point, on the 9th; and at Greensboro', on the 10th.

MASS MEETING AT CHARLOTTE.—It will be seen, by reference to the announcement of "Mass Meetings," that it is proposed to hold one in Charlotte, on Thursday, the 9th. We are assured that every arrangement will be made for a grand affair.

WHITE MEN'S CLUB.

There will be a meeting of the White Men's Club of the city, at the Court-House, this (Wednesday) evening, at 8 o'clock.—Speeches may be expected from Col. Wm. A. Jenkins, of Warren, Hon. Sion H. Rogers, and others. Come out, fellow-citizens, and let us have a grand rally!

By order of
THE PRESIDENT.

SERGEANT BATES.

We learn, by a telegram from High Point, that Sergeant Bates will reach Raleigh, this (Wednesday) morning, on the 9½ o'clock train from the West.

He will be received at the Depot of the North Carolina Railroad, by the Mayor and Commissioners, where he will be welcomed by the Mayor. He will then be escorted to the Yarborough House, where, without further ceremony, he will be entertained, during his stay in the city, at the expense of the Municipal authorities.

ROBBERIES.—Several robberies have occurred in the city, recently. An onslaught was made, some nights ago, on Col. Barringer's poultry house, and sundry fine turkeys, and other fowls, were stolen.

Gov. Worth's store-room was entered, a night or two ago, and harness, a saddle, and other gear, besides flour, &c., were stolen.

On Monday, some fellow, who stole a saddle, hid it on the premises of N. S. Harp, Esq. We are authorized to say, by Mr. Harp, that the owner of the lost saddle can get it, on application to him.

CAPT. LEE AND HIS CARD.

The following Card was placed on our table, by Capt. T. F. Lee, some time ago, with a request that we would publish it. We intended doing so, but, afterwards, being satisfied that we had not misrepresented him, in the first instance, and that our informants had not misled us, we determined not to notice it until some of the parties interested had time and opportunity to correct its statements.

We, therefore, now, publish the card below, with the accompanying explicit and perfectly satisfactory denial:

RALEIGH, N. C., Mar. 16th. 1868.

MESSRS. PELL AND GALES:—GENTLEMEN: In your paper of this date I noticed an article, in regard to myself, about holding up my hand at Sorrell's, in favor of colored and white children going to the same schools, and colored and white men mustering together, &c. I pronounce the charge false. The circumstances of the case are as follows:

Mr. Bledsoe stated, in his speech, that the Constitution that was to be submitted to the people compelled white and colored children to go the same schools; also compelling white and colored men to muster in the same Company, and allowed colored men to be appointed guardians for white children. He then said, with emphasis, if there was any white man in the crowd that would vote for the Constitution, that, according to his interpretation, favored such enormities, he wanted him to hold up his hand, and every white man in the crowd held up their hands, with the exception of about ten. There were 75 or 80 white men present.

Messrs. Editors, as you pass your card around, I hope you will do me the justice to pass this around with it.

By inserting the above in the columns of your paper you will confer many favors on
Your Obedient Servant,
T. F. LEE.

(Now look at this side.)

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We, the undersigned, were present at the speaking, at Jacob Sorrell's, on Friday, March 13th. We do not remember the exact words used by Mr. Bledsoe, in regard to the new Constitution, but we think the statement made in the Sentinel, of the 16th., substantially correct. Mr. Bledsoe, and some others, are of the opinion that T. F. Lee was the only man who raised his hand, while some of us think that three or four others, among whom were Joseph W. Holden and John T. Dewesse, raised their hands, but they dropped their's in a few seconds, leaving T. F. Lee alone holding up his hand,—which accounts for the other impression.

The statements in the Standard, of the 16th. or 17th., that "Capt. Lee and some seventy other white persons held up their hands," and in T. F. Lee's card, that "myself, and two thirds of the white men in the crowd, held up their hands," we pronounce to be deliberate falsehoods.

George M. Whiting,	William P. Forrest,
Jno. W. Sorrell,	Nelson Hill, Sr.,
W. Halliburton,	James Forrest.

We, the undersigned, being present at the discussion above named, saw only the hand of T. F. Lee raised at Mr. Bledsoe's call:

M. M. Massey,	R. K. Ferrell,
J. W. Wiggins,	J. Q. DeCarteret,
H. E. Holloway,	J. M. Lynn,
Zach. Rich,	Robert Powell,
Thomas Cozart,	Lewis Jackson,
Jno. W. Hill,	Reddick Blake,
Solomon Wiggins,	J. P. Chandler.

I saw no other hand raised but Capt. Lee's.
M. A. BLEDSOE.
March 30th., 1868.

THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—The Conservative Convention for this District, which met, at Lumberton, on Friday last, was a glorious affair, judging from the accounts of those who were so fortunate as to be present. The greatest unanimity and enthusiasm prevailed, and the ladies,—Heaven bless them!—attended in large numbers. The Wilmington Journal says that the people of Robeson and that section, generally, are thoroughly aroused.

As heretofore announced, the Hon. Thos. C. Fuller, of Cumberland, received the nomination for Congress, and we judge that no better selection could have been made.—Mr. Fuller is a gentleman of fine ability and staunch patriotism.

Col. N. A. McLean, of Robeson, and Col. Robt. Strange, of New Hanover, were appointed delegates to the Democratic National Convention, with Col. W. L. Steele, of Richmond, and Capt. H. C. Brock, of New Hanover, as Alternates.

Hon. Jesse G. Shepherd, of Fayetteville, presided over the Convention.

A DOCUMENT FROM "DE ARCHIVES OF GRAVITY."—We learn that the document, of which the following is a true copy, found its way into "de archives," a few days ago. What it means, or what the quid pro quo was, for which it was drawn, we cannot understand. The people would like to know what the public money is paid out for, and whether or not the payment is according to law. The position which Daddy Cowles occupies, at present, is a very queer one.—A candidate for Congress, and, at the same time, an executor of the secret or private orders of the Convention, at $6 per day, as President of a State Convention, after its adjournment, is something new under the sun:

"STATE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION
OF NORTH CAROLINA,
RALEIGH, March 28, 1868.

This certifies that Calvin J. Cowles, as President, is authorized to draw the amount of four hundred dollars,—same being for contingent expenses.

[Signed] CALVIN J. COWLES,
President.
J. HEATON, Clerk.
Pay to C. W. Horner, or order.
CALVIN J. COWLES."

BENJ. T. GREEN.—This gentleman, the Conservative candidate (on the part of Franklin) for one of the Senatorships in the District of Wake and Franklin, has been prevented, the present week, by indisposition, from visiting and making the acquaintance of his fellow-citizens of this county. We trust that he may yet be able to do so. Dr. Green is a gentleman of great worth and fine attainments, and of deserved popularity in Franklin. The white men of Wake have every confidence in the choice of their Franklin brethren, and will support Dr. Green most heartily.

WHICH IS BETTER, a Government administered by intelligent and virtuous native WHITE MEN, or a Government administered by needy squatters, ignorant Africans and impudent allies of mixed blood?

NUMBER OF VOTERS.—REGISTER!!

The number of voters, already registered in this State, is considerably larger than we had supposed. The common impression has been that the late registration only embraced 103,000 whites and about 71,000 blacks. The official returns, as published by Gen. Canby, make the following exhibit:

No of whites registered	106,721.
No of blacks registered	72,932.
Maj of whites	33,789.

We are inclined to think that the new registration will give the whites a clear majority of 40,000. Let our Canvassers, and others, look to the registration, which begins on the 7th. inst. Urge every man, entitled to vote, to REGISTER BY ALL MEANS.

GEN. W. R. COX.

It being found impracticable, at this late day, to convene a District Convention, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Solicitor, the Executive Committee for this District (all the gentlemen comprising it being present) have placed in nomination, for that position, Gen. William R. Cox, of this city. We accordingly place his name on our ticket, to day.

Gen. Cox will prove a most acceptable candidate to the people of the District, and, if elected, will make an able and efficient Solicitor. We shall support him with pride and pleasure.

TOM GREEN, a well known negro, and the only negro in Hillsboro, who voted the Conservative ticket at the last election, sells the "Holden Record" on the cars between Raleigh and Charlotte. Several days ago, with a bundle of Holden Records under his arm, he approached a Yankee Carpet Bagger, and the following conversation took place:

Tom:—"Have a Holden Record? Latest out. Every white man ought to have one."

Carpet Bag-man:—"What do you, a colored man, mean by selling that paper?"

Tom:—(impatiently) "Do you want a paper?"

Scal:—You ought not to sell that paper. Holden is your friend; it is wrong. I——

Tom:—(very impatiently and contemptuously) "I say. Do you want a paper? If you do, say so; if you do not, then I've no further use for you." And he passed on, leaving the scalawag to his own meditations.

Tom got off the following good hit on Tod R. Cadwell.

Citizen:—"Tom, why don't you go up to Morganton and sell your Holden Records?"

Tom:—"Mass. Tod lives up dar. I'm afeerd Mass Tod might jump on me and beat me, till I would'nt know which from tother. Dont ketch dis nigger up in dem diggins."

Cit:—"Well, Tom, that is a fact. I reckon if you were to sell the Record up in that county, old Tod would say you had deserted your color!"

Tom:—"Well; let him say so: D—d if I can't say the same thing of Mass. Tod!"

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The delegates to the Conservative District Convention, for the First Congressional District, are requested to meet at Edenton, Chowan county, on Tuesday, the 7th. of April, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress, and appointing delegates to the National Democratic Convention.

The First District is composed of the counties of Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Gates, Chowan, Hertford, Northampton, Halifax, Martin, Bertie, Washington, Tyrrell, Hyde and Beaufort.

WM. F. MARTIN,
P. T. HENRY, } Com.
R. B. PEEBLES,

CATAWBA.—This gallant little county is fully aroused. A friend, writing us from Newton, under date of March 30, says:

"To morrow, we will have a grand rally in Catawba, in behalf of the Old Constitution and a White Man's Government. Vance is in town and will address the people. He is on his way West.

You may count our county all right, in the coming election. Catawba will remain, as she ever has stood, square against Radicalism; and now she will give the largest vote for the Conservative cause ever polled here."

CHATHAM COUNTY.—Maj. R. W. York, owing to pressing personal considerations, has declined the nomination for the House of Representatives (so-called,) tendered him by the Conservatives of Chatham. His Card will appear to-morrow. It is to be hoped that our friends in Chatham will promptly supply the vacancy.

COL. E. D. HALL.—The Wilmington Journal learns that the reception of Col. Hall, at Fayetteville, on Thursday last, was very flattering. The people turned out in large numbers and escorted him to his lodgings. At all points, at which he has addressed the people, his reception has been most marked, and our candidate for Lieutenant Governor is doing noble service in this contest.

THEY GIVE IT UP.—The Hon. (?) Calvin J. Cowles, President of the late attempt at Constitution-making in this State, left yesterday afternoon for his home, and for immediate preparation for his trip up Salt River. Before going, he confessed to one of our citizens, at the Depot, "that the Constitution would be voted down," and departed, we presume, in tears.

THE ELECTION IN NORTH CAROLINA AND GEORGIA.—Dispatches received by the Congressional Committee give assurance that the new constitution of North Carolina and Georgia and the Republican State tickets will be carried by large majorities. North Carolina promises a white Republican majority of thirty thousand, and Georgia claims twenty thousand.—Forney.

Don't lie, unnecessarily, Forney, and don't let your friends impose too heavily upon your credulity. Wait until the 23rd. of April, and you'll sing a different tune.—There is such a thing as "holding the word of 'promise' to the ear and breaking it to the hope."

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 31, M.

Judge Black, on yesterday, in the Supreme Court, desired to show what effect the recent legislation had on the McCardle case.

During the colloquy, Judge Grier said he felt called upon to vindicate himself from whatever of obloquy or censure may attach to any one in this matter,—that he thought the failure to decide the McCardle case will be considered as a design, on the part of the Court, to wait for legislation to relieve them from the performance of an unpleasant duty. He closed by saying: "I am ashamed that such an opprobrium should be cast upon the Court, and that it cannot be refuted."

The Court has postponed the argument in the case until next Term.

Gen. Hancock has issued an order, to-day, assuming command of the Division of the Atlantic, with Headquarters here. The Division embraces the Department of the East, of Washington and of the Lakes.

Chase sustained the Managers, when Drake objected.

Chase maintained that he had a right to make preliminary decisions, subject to appeal.

Drake appealed. The Managers sustained the appeal. Butler saying he was glad that the issue arose, when the ruling was in their favor. The defence took no part in the contest.

A motion to retire prevailed,—Chase voting aye to decide a tie, and Doolittle and Saulsbury, of the Democrats, only voting nay.

After three hours absence, Chase announced, as the decision that the Chief Justice should decide questions of evidence and preliminary questions subject to appeal. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Nothing important beyond passing the tax Conference Report.

SUPREME COURT, &C., &C.

WASHINGTON, March 31, P. M.

The McCardle argument was postponed, on motion of Carpenter, who was not prepared.

The Managers made a tremendous effort, to-day, saying that should the point go against them, they would be compelled to retire and consult the House.

When the decision was announced, Butler said that the managers desired to retire for consultation. Little evidence taken to-day. The President's friends seem to be in excellent spirits.

It has transpired that the President changed the form of appointment blanks, to conform to the Tenure of Office Act, after that law passed.

Gen. Moorehead characterises the interviews between Stanton and Thomas as somewhat jocular. No hostile demonstrations.

Butler volunteered to repeat after inaudible witnesses, but the defence objected.

The vote in private session, sustaining Chase, was 31 to 19.

HARNETT—DESERTING THE LEAGUES.—A correspondent, writing us from this County, under date of the 30th, says:

"Harnett is a-fire, and will defeat the Constitution by a large majority. C. H. Coffield, Esq., addressed a large crowd on Saturday, and, after he closed, he asked the U.L.A. to come out and take a stand with us. One of the leaders made a speech and told them to come out and vote down the Constitution and Holden."

A greenhorn sat a long time very attentively musing upon a cane bottom chair. At length he said: "I wonder what fellow took the trouble to find all them ar holes and put them straws around 'em."

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS? That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE APPRENTICED TO NEGRO MASTERS?—That is one of the issues. The mongrel Convention refused to prohibit such a thing!

FROM WASHINGTON.

THE REFUSAL OF THE SENATE TO ALLOW TIME TO THE PRESIDENT'S COUNSEL—THE SUPREME COURT BILL IN THE HOUSE—VIEWS OF A CONSERVATIVE SENATOR—NO HOPE FOR RELIEF BUT IN REVOLUTION—STEVENS AND SCHENCK—STEVENS CLINGING TO CONFISCATION.

WASHINGTON, March 28.

The action of the Senate in refusing counsel time to prepare for the defence of the President is regarded as not only unfair to the President, but positively insulting to the distinguished gentlemen who had stated upon their professional reputation that the time asked for was actually necessary.

The result has been that Mr. Evarts was forced to seek his own library in New York, and will not return until Monday morning, while the rest of the counsel are laboring here on the different points involved in the case. Thus they are to be forced to trial on Monday, without concert of action or opportunity for consultation.

The discussion in the House on the Supreme Court bill, vetoed by the President, was restricted to one hour, and that hour Mr. Wilson parcelled out to suit himself; then the bill was passed over the veto by the same vote by which it was originally sneaked through that body.

Thus legislation progresses here; each act of Congress being worse, if possible, than the one which preceded it. The gravest legislation is attended with mocking jeers of Radicals over a helpless minority.

A Conservative Senator, noted for his caution, as well as his great ability, declared to-night that there was no escape for the country from its present political bondage, excepting in revolution, which he regards as near at hand. Thad. Stevens and Schenck had a lively spat to-day, which varied the monotony of Congressional proceedings.

Stevens still clings to the idea of confiscation, and he asked the Chairman if the Ways and Means Committee had made any provision for lightening the burthen of taxation at the North by providing for a general confiscation at the South?

Schenck tartly replied: My Committee has charge of taxation; confiscation we leave to the Committee on Reconstruction.

Stevens—"I asked the gentleman a question and he answers with a sneer."

Schenck again replied, in a boisterous tone, re-calling to the minds of many the fable of the dead lion.

It is understood that Stevens will bring in another scheme for general confiscation before the session closes, should death not arrest him before he completes his plans.

Canvassers for the State at Large.

The following gentlemen have been appointed, by the State Conservative Executive Committee, Canvassers for the State at large. HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., March 23, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 45.

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforecited laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act (March 23, 1867, Section 4) at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention;" and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution; and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress. It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered, and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the Registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits herein required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election and when used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections, "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several Registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.
